

As someone who travels on business each week, having a known source for my weather, traffic and music is invaluable. Before XM I would have to search around the dial for a radio station but i never knew when or how good the reporting was. Stopping such services is wrong and unfair. Also i am able to get the weather and traffic before I arrive in the city. I urge the FCC to reject NAB petition 04-160.

Bruce Bateman